H.J.R. No. 95

A JOINT RESOLUTION

1 proposing a constitutional amendment to provide a four-year term
2 for the adjutant general and to provide that the term run
3 concurrently with the term of the governor.

4 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

5 SECTION 1. Section 30, Article XVI, Texas Constitution, is
6 amended by adding Subsection (e) to read as follows:

7 (e) If the legislature establishes an office, known as the 8 office of the adjutant general or known by another title, that is 9 filled by appointment by the governor and that is the single
10 governing office, subordinate only to the governor, of the state
11 military forces, the person holding that office has a term of four 12 years running concurrently with the term of the governor.

13 SECTION 2. The following temporary provision is added to the 14 Texas Constitution:

15 TEMPORARY PROVISION. (a) This temporary provision applies
16 to the constitutional amendment proposed by the 76th Legislature,
17 Regular Session, 1999, that provides a four-year term for the 18 adjutant general and that provides that the term run concurrently
19 with the term of the governor.

20 (b) The term of the person who holds office as the adjutant
21 general on the effective date of this constitutional amendment
22 expires at the time in 2003 prescribed by law for the expiration of 23 the governor's term.

24 (c) This temporary provision expires February 1, 2003.

1 SECTION 3. This proposed constitutional amendment shall be
2 submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 2, 1999.
3 The ballot shall be printed to permit voting for or against the
4 proposition: "The constitutional amendment to provide a four-year
5 term for the adjutant general and to provide that the term run
6 concurrently with the term of the governor."

C.S.H.J.R. 95

State Affairs

5/10/1999

Committee Report (Substituted)

BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

Currently, an adjutant general is appointed every two years by the governor. However, since the governor serves a four-year term, it is often necessary for the governor to reappoint the adjutant general half-way through the governor's term. The adjutant general must go through senate confirmation again. As proposed, C.S.H.J.R. 95 requires the submission to the voters of a constitutional amendment to provide a four-year term for the adjutant general and to provide that the term runs concurrently with the term of the governor, expiring on the date that the governor who appointed the adjutant general ceases to hold office as governor.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

It is the opinion of the Office of House Bill Analysis that this bill does not expressly delegate any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, department, agency, or institution.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends Section 30, Article XVI, Texas Constitution, by adding Subsection (e), as follows:

(e) Provides that if the legislature establishes an office, known as the office of the adjutant general or known by another title, that is filled by appointment by the governor and that is the single governing office, subordinate only to the governor, of the state military forces, the person holding that office has a term of four years running concurrently with the term of the governor. Provides that the term of that officer expires on the date on which the governor who appointed that officer ceases to hold office as governor.

SECTION 2. Amends the Texas Constitution by adding a temporary provision, as follows:

TEMPORARY PROVISION. (a) Provides that this temporary provision applies to the constitutional amendment proposed by the 76th Legislature, Regular Session, 1999, that provides a four-year term for the adjutant general and that provides that the term runs concurrently with the term of the governor.

(b) Provides that the term of the person who holds office as the adjutant general on the effective date of that constitutional amendment expires as provided by that constitutional amendment.

(c) Provides that this temporary provision expires February 1, 2003.

SECTION 3. Requires this proposed constitutional amendment to be submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 2, 1999. Sets forth the required language for the ballot.

COMPARISON OF ORIGINAL TO SUBSTITUTE

This substitute modifies the caption to make a nonsubstantive change.

This substitute modifies proposed Section 30(e), Article XVI, Texas Constitution, in SECTION 1, to provide that the term of the adjutant general expires on the date on which the governor who appointed that officer ceases to hold office as governor.

This substitute modifies proposed Subsection (b) of the temporary provision, in SECTION 2, to provide that the term of the person who holds office as the adjutant general on the effective date of this constitutional amendment expires as provided by that constitutional amendment, rather than expires at the time in 2003 prescribed by law for the expiration of the governor's term.
